

Profile: Dr. Anita Shantaram

With two decades of corporate training and teaching experience and having completed her PhD in the field of Business Ethics from BITS Pilani in 2015, Dr. Anita Shantaram, has recently founded www.ethicsindia.com. Having completed the executive Education program, “Managing Ethics in Organizations” from Bentley University, Boston, U.S.A she is also certified as Leading Professional in Ethics and Compliance by ECI, U.S.A. A post-graduate in Industrial Psychology, Bombay University, 1990, she enjoys corporate training.

She received the Outstanding Teacher Award in the area of Business Ethics from HEF (Higher Education Forum--- 2013). She has been a passionate and devoted faculty member at Sydenham College, for (BMS) for 7 years and has earlier taught Psychology at Jai Hind College. She is also teaching Business Ethics among other personality and communication course at IBS business school since 2006. She has been a guest faculty to various Management Institutes and has conducted over 1000 workshops in India and Dubai for organizations such as Larsen and Toubro, the Tata group, IDBI, Motorola, Bureau VERITAS, Utmost group and Intertec Systems in Dubai.

An author, her first book 'Speak Well, Do Well is in its 3rd edition. Additionally, she has published 7 papers in the area of Business Ethics and is currently working on various authorships in the space of Business Ethical Practices.

As the President of Rotary Club of Bombay Bayview 2009-10, Asst. Governor 2013-14, Asst. Trainer 2016-17 and Jt. Treasurer 2017-18 for District 3141, she has been active in the Socially Responsive Work space in Mumbai, where she lives. She is a trustee of the “Dr. P. N. Singh Foundation” that conducts the “Leaders of Tomorrow Project” in over 50 schools in Mumbai.
